This group of bible studies is possibly one of the most important for us today, because of the constant bombardment of worldly values which we're faced with, and which are always very contrary to the values of God's Word.